

September 2018

A Less Invasive Route to Test for Prostate Cancer

Calgary's Prostate Cancer Centre recruited 1,900 research patients over 4 years in this innovative study to help develop a less invasive test that could make a significant impact on the way patients are diagnosed and treated for prostate cancer.

Read more

Dax Shepard Would Rather DO WHAT Than Get A Prostate Exam?

Dax Shepard would rather do a lot of other things than get a prostate cancer exam. But what if we told you that it starts with a simple blood test? Get educated and #GetChecked.

Watch the PSA

Health Canada Approved ERLEADA

The PCC is proud to have been one of the research sites who helped run this clinical trial. ERLEADA™ decreased the risk of metastasis or death in patients by 70 per cent.

Click here for more information

Prostate Cancer in the LGBTQ+ Community

This year, the #MANVAN took part in 2018 Pride in the Park, where over 67 people with prostates were tested. Our centre seeks to be an inclusive resource where all people feel safe. If you have a prostate, it needs to be tested!

Read more here and here

9 Revolutionary Ways to Prevent Disease

Make self-care a priority with these 9 holistic ways to nurture your body and mind.

Click here for more information

MAN VAN

Got a Health Fair coming up? Book the #ManVan and receive 30% off your first time booking.

Click here to book the MANVAN

Do Good in Your 'Hood.

Do good in your 'hood. Visit Craft Beer Market until November and try the exclusive Last Best Bet Your Balls India Crushable Ale .

$1 from every pint will go to support the Calgary Prostate Cancer Centre .

How a Fundraiser for a Prostate Cancer Centre Became a Million-Dollar Success

For 20 years a local golf tournament has sought to even the odds against prostate cancer, the most common cancer affecting Canadian men. Thank you to our generous friends at Priddis Greens Golf & Country Club for their continued support.

Click here for more information

Calgary's Prostate Cancer Centre receives no government funding for our operations. Help support men in your community by donating .

Follow us on social media to keep up-to-date with our operations.

